

17. foglalkozás szeptember 9.

Virtual visits: The Natural History Museum

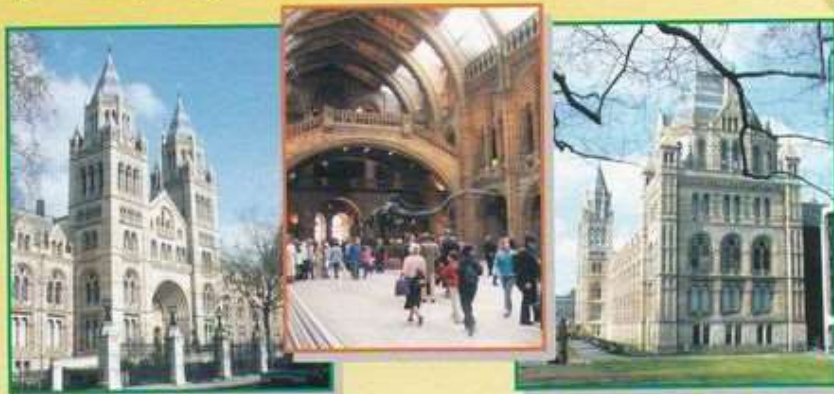

NATURAL HISTORY ONLINE

The Natural History Museum – London

www.nhm.ac.uk

Tom vividly remembers his first visit to the Natural History Museum in South Kensington, London. He spent a whole afternoon there three years ago, and hopes to go back for a second tour during his next trip to Britain.

The Life Galleries

- 1 What can you see in the central hall of the Natural History Museum?

- 2 What does the arthropod group include? (Creepy crawlies – G 33)

- 3 Which mammal's huge, life-size model is suspended from the ceiling?
(Mammals – G 23/24)

- 4 When did Charles Darwin publish his theory of evolution?
(Origin of species – G 105)

- 5 What is strange about certain fish that live very deep in the ocean? How many different species of fish are there? (Fishes, amphibians ... – G 12)

TWO

- 6 What is special about some of the display cases of birds? (Birds – G 40)
-
- 7 What do we call meteorites? (Meteorites – G 103)
-
- 8 What kinds of moral issues does the exhibition about the plant kingdom explore? (Plant power – G 108)
-

The Earth Galleries

- 9 How can you enter a massive sculpture of the Earth in the NHM? (G 60)
-
- 10 What can you experience with the help of a simulator? (G 61)
-
- 11 What type of animal was Anomalocaris? When did it live? (G 63)
-
- 12 How many specimens are exhibited from the Earth's treasury? (G 64)
-

Interactive Online Exhibitions

- 13 What are the main online features of the Darwin Centre?
-
- 14 What is AntCast? What kind of other online investigations are accessible for kids and adults at the NHM website?
-
- 15 QUEST is an acronym. Which five words are abbreviated in it?
- Q _____ U _____ E _____
- S _____ T _____
- 16 What is your mission in QUEST?
-
- 17 What can you do in QUEST?
-